Hello Matt,

Thank you for calling to report the diesel leak and sending the photos. We just spoke with the contractor and he has someone in route to either fix the leak or haul the vehicle offsite. He should be there within the hour. The contractor also confirmed they have a spill kit onsite and will clean up the diesel that has leaked onto the roadway.

Thank you again for reporting this issue. Please don't hesitate to contact me again in the future if you have any questions or concerns.

Thanks,
Kristen
